MANANA SUBD UNRECORDED, Austin, TX

Set on one of the most iconic stretches of Lake Austin, 2401 Manana St. is a rare midcentury retreat that effortlessly balances architectural pedigree with laid-back Lake Austin living. Inspired by Frank Lloyd Wright's organic aesthetic, the rotunda-style home features dramatic yet welcoming vaulted ceilings, warm teak cabinetry in the updated kitchen, and sliding glass doors throughout the entire living and dining space that opens to the expansive, flat lawn. Shaded by a canopy of mature oak trees and two producing heritage pecan trees, the lawn leads you gently toward +/- 100' of private waterfront, where iconic oak trees frame the view. The calm waters here are ideal for water skiing, wakeboarding, and wake surfing—one of the best stretches on the lake for smooth conditions. The main house includes three bedrooms and two full bathrooms, while a detached two-car garage and guest suite offers its own living space, bedroom, and bathroom. On the water, a rare, grandfathered boathouse includes a full bathroom and lounge outfitted with a kitchenette, and the recently updated two-story boat dock features ipe decking, a hydraulic boat lift, touchless boat cover, shaded lounging and sunbathing areas, and even a jump gate into the lake. The property also boasts a full-yard sprinkler system and an updated water purification system. Located on a coveted neighborhood street, this home is within walking distance of Ski Shores Café.

(but just far enough to avoid the crowds), close to the natural beauty of Emma Long Park and all its recreational offerings, and benefits from a private neighborhood fireworks show on the Fourth of July. Tax and assessed values are estimates for illustration purposes only. All figures should be independently verified.
