Residential on 0.30 Acres

Oaks Barton, Austin, TX

Welcome to 2629 Deerfoot Trail, a rare gem perched along the Barton Creek Greenbelt, where verdant canyon views meet downtown Austin's skyline. This 4-bed, 2.5-bath home was quality-built by respected local builder Wilde Custom Homes and combines solid construction with architectural character and a peaceful natural setting. One of the home's standout features is its easy walk to Barton Springs Pool and the Zilker Park hike-and-bike trails, enjoying the best of Austin's outdoor lifestyle within minutes of home. The home sits privately off the street and welcomes you through a serene courtyard with a koi pond and meditation bench. Inside, expansive windows capture the surrounding treetops and city skyline, creating light-filled living and dining spaces that connect seamlessly with nature. The home's solid structure and timeless layout make it comfortable and move-in ready, while also providing an excellent opportunity for a personalized update. Additional features include custom built-in shelving and cabinetry, large closets for storage, multiple outdoor living areas and a two-car garage with EV charger. Zoned to award-winning Barton Hills Elementary, close proximity to South Lamar's shopping and dining and just 11 miles to Austin-Bergstrom International Airport. Homes in this location rarely come available offering the best of Austin living where nature and city meet.
