Built in 2016 by Strut Design+Build and designed by the late architect Cass Cheesar, this 3,147-square-foot residence spans two levels of refined living. An open-concept layout and abundant natural light create a bright, airy atmosphere ideal for everyday life and entertaining. It connects seamlessly to the dining and living areas—perfect for hosting or relaxing with family. Sliding doors lead to a covered patio and beautifully landscaped backyard, offering a peaceful retreat. The luxurious first-floor primary suite includes a spa-like bathroom with walk-in shower, double vanity, and spacious walk-in closet. A second bedroom or office on the main level adds flexibility. Upstairs, two more bedrooms, a full bath, and a second living area offer additional comfort and privacy. Upgrades include a 10kW solar system, two battery packs, and a Wallbox Smart EV charger. The garage features epoxy floors, custom shelving, bike racks, and a smart "SPAN" electrical panel. The backyard boasts mature landscaping—including a red oak and Japanese maples—a rock walkway, cement paver path, cozy deck, and grilling area. An extended side fence enhances privacy. With quality construction, modern design, and eco-conscious features, this exceptional home offers elevated living in one of Austin's most desirable neighborhoods—just minutes from downtown, Zilker Park, Barton Creek Greenbelt, and South Lamar.
